In addition, list all instances of discipline in which the sanction imposed was censure or greater, or an informal reprimand in which the disciplinary record was public, pursuant to Rule 70, Ariz. R. Sup. Ct. A record of discipline or failure to disclose the same may constitute grounds for denial of an application for certification.
- B. Malpractice Actions. List all malpractice claims asserted during your preceding term of certification in which your action or inaction is alleged to have constituted malpractice, if such claim is presently pending in a court case, or has been asserted but not yet filed as a court case, or was settled with or without court action by payment of a settlement in excess of $5,000.00, or resulted in a judgment in excess of $5,000.00. Further, should any malpractice proceedings arise during the pendency of this application, you must supplement this application with the information required herein for the newly arisen matter.
- C. Judicial Sanctions. List all sanctions imposed on you by any court during the preceding period of certification. Further, should any sanctions be imposed during the pendency of this application, you must supplement this application with the information regarding the sanction imposed.
- D. Employment History. In chronological order, beginning with your most recent employment, list a complete statement of your employment during the preceding five-year term of certification. Include the dates of employment, employer's name and address, and a brief summary of the nature of the work performed.
- E. References. List the names, mailing addresses and e-mail addresses of all attorneys who have been involved in Family Law matters which you have handled and all judges or court commissioners before whom you have practiced during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding this application. It is not necessary to specify case numbers, names of parties, or types of Family Law matters. Requests for written evaluations similar to those requested regarding initial applicants shall be sent to at least two (2) of the judges and five (5) of the attorneys listed by the applicant, not including any members of the BLS or FLAC. Do not list lawyers serving on the Board of Legal Specialization or on the Family Law Advisory Commission as references. A list of all lawyers serving in these capacities can be found at:

<https://www.azbar.org/for-lawyers/communities/committees/board-of-legal-specialization/>

Statements of references shall be confidential and privileged from disclosure, except to the applicant upon request.

- F. Substantial Involvement in Family Law. Pursuant to the Standards for Certification of Lawyers Specializing in Family Law, applicants for recertification must demonstrate substantial involvement in the field of family law during the preceding five (5) year term of certification. A specialist certified in Family Law prior to January 1, 2011, will be deemed to have had substantial involvement in Family Law during the period of specialization if an amount of his or her practice is equal to at least 50% of a full-time practice of Family Law. A specialist who was initially certified in Family Law subsequent to January 1, 2011, will be deemed to have had substantial involvement in Family Law during the period of specialization if an amount of his or her practice is equal to at least 70% of a full-time practice consisting of Family Law. By signing this application for recertification, the applicant avows that he or she has engaged in the full-time practice of law for the preceding five years and that he/she has devoted at least 50% (or 70% if certified after January 2, 2011) of said full-time practice to family law.
- G. Continuing Legal Education Requirements. Applicants for recertification shall comply with the Continuing Legal Education requirements for attorneys certified as Family Law Specialists in each of the preceding five (5) years of his/her term of certification. Specifically, they shall have completed a minimum of 12 hours per year in the field of Family Law, in one or more “advanced/specialist” level seminars, in addition to three hours per year of professional responsibility (ethics). Credit for other educational activities may be granted by the BLS as specified in the Rules and Regulations of the BLS, Section VIII.B. By signing this application for recertification, the applicant avows that he or she has complied with said requirements.

If you are or were exempt from State Bar CLE requirements in any or all of the five (5) preceding years, please indicate so in a separate statement.

If you are not exempt, please provide copies of your MCLE affidavits (last five educational years only), clearly indicating on the affidavit (circle, underline, asterisk, etc.) those seminars/classes in the area of specialization. If you have not filed your affidavit for the current educational year, please print a copy of the tracking page clearly indicating the advanced level events in the area of specialization.

H. Waiver. The FLAC may recommend waiver of any requirement(s) listed in the Standards for Recertification of Lawyers Specializing in Family Law, if circumstances so warrant. Should you wish to request a waiver of a requirement, please identify the requirement to be waived and provide a detailed explanation of all the facts and circumstances which you believe justify waiving said requirement(s).

I. Practice or Family Law Service Requirements. For recertification, the applicant must demonstrate fulfillment of the requirements of either “Track 1” or “Track 2” as defined below. Such demonstration shall include sufficient detail, including categories, dates, and case names, as is necessary to prove fulfillment of the requirements of either “Track 1” or “Track 2.”

1. (The phrase “Family Law service” is not intended to imply that the applicant should not be compensated, where appropriate. For example, an attorney likely would not be compensated for serving on a Bar committee but likely would be compensated for serving as an expert witness.)
