

Across the Spectrum of Criminal Law

This year's Criminal Law Track covers an entire spectrum of topics from the passage of Prop 207 all the way back to the forensic testing of yesteryear. The faculty includes practitioners with decades of experience and with expertise honed from years in the trenches. Please join your friends and colleagues for this quality CLE offering presented at the beautiful Hotel del Coronado.

CRIMINAL

TRACK CHAIR:

Tim Agan

Maricopa County Office of the Legal Advocate

Friday 8:15 am – 12:30 pm

Day one begins with a Judge Maria Elena Cruz, Xochitl Orozco and Grace Guisewite discussing the best ways to preserve the record for appeals and tips for effective appellant practice. Lauren Cusitello will then discuss the ways that people enter the United States, the impact a criminal conviction may have on a person's immigration status, and strategies for minimizing those consequences. Finally, Alex Lane will discuss the Arizona Medical Marijuana Act and how recent court decisions have resulted in legal and ethical challenges involving dispensaries and enforcement policies.

FACULTY:

Honorable Maria Elena Cruz, Arizona Court of Appeals, Division One; Xochitl Orozco, Cochise County Legal Advocate; Grace Guisewite, Maricopa County Office of the Legal Advocate; Lauren Cusitello, Director of the Immigrant Justice Project in San Diego; Alex Lane, Lane, Hupp, & Crowley, PLC

Saturday 8:15 am – 12:30 pm

Day two starts with Jared Keenan reviewing the new laws from the past legislative session and other news from the legislature. The day continues with Matt Brown discussing Federal Civil rights litigation under §1983 and how this tool might be used in criminal practice. Nancy A. Greenlee will then discuss the disciplinary process and common ethical issues in criminal cases. Finally, the day will end with an interactive discussion about eyewitness testimony presented by Tim Agan.

FACULTY:

Jared Keenan, ACLU of Arizona; Matthew Brown, Attorney at Law; Nancy A. Greenlee, Attorney and Counselor at Law; Tim Agan, Maricopa County Office of the Legal Advocate

Sunday 8:15 am – 12:30 pm

Day three starts with Tim Agan providing a review of the basics of DNA evidence, including the collection, analysis and the significance of the reported results. The day continues with Grace Guisewite providing a criminal case law update. Jared Keenan will then discuss the history of efforts to reform jury selection in Arizona and the new rule that eliminated peremptory strikes. Finally, Matt Brown and Ryan Green will end the day with an interactive trial practice refresher.

FACULTY:

Tim Agan, Maricopa County Office of the Legal Advocate; Grace Guisewite, Maricopa County Office of the Legal Advocate; Jared Keenan, ACLU of Arizona; Ryan Green, Maricopa County Attorney's Office; Matthew Brown, Attorney at Law

This program track may qualify for up to 12.0 hours MCLE, and all of which may be Criminal Law Specialization.

