Join us virtually for the 2022 Family Law Institute! This three-day family law focused program is the best way to ensure you are completely up to date on the latest cases, legislation and other new developments in Arizona family law. The program provides practical instruction on many important topics along with engaging Hot Tips and Judges' Panels. The Institute has become the annual gathering place for the Arizona family law community; this is your opportunity to share collective wisdom and to discuss cutting-edge legal strategies.
