NOTES:

A $300 application fee, payable to the State Bar of Arizona, is to be submitted with a copy of the first page of your application to:

Board of Legal Specialization
State Bar of Arizona
4201 N. 24th Street, Suite 100
Phoenix, AZ 85016-6266.

The application is due August 1. For applications submitted AFTER August 1 – an additional $75 late fee is assessed.

The separate examination fee (see para G) is to be paid when you are notified you may sit for the examination.

I. Legal Education. List schools attended, dates of attendance, and degree awarded.

II. Prior Certification Applications. If applicable, list any organization in which you are/were certified as a legal specialist and the dates of certification. Also, indicate the dates and field of law of any former certifications in Arizona.

III. On a separate sheet of paper, please provide the following information:

- A. Record of Discipline. A discipline check will be conducted on every applicant. Please list any disciplinary actions taken against you in any state, jurisdiction, or organization. In addition, list all instances of discipline in which the sanction imposed was censure or greater, or an informal reprimand in which the disciplinary record was public, pursuant to Rule 70, Ariz. R. S. Ct. A record of discipline or failure to disclose the same may constitute grounds for denial of an application.
- B. Employment History. In chronological order, beginning with your most recent employment, list a complete statement of your employment since admission to the practice of law. Include the dates of employment, employer's name and address, and a brief summary of the nature of the work performed.
- C. Required Period of Law Practice. An applicant shall have been admitted to the practice of law for a minimum of five (5) years, of which a minimum of three (3) years immediately preceding the application must have been in the practice of law within the State of Arizona, and after such admission shall have engaged in legal service (as defined in Section I of the Rules and Regulations of the Arizona Board of Legal Specialization) equivalent to at least 50% of a full-time practice.
- D. References. List the names, mailing addresses and e-mail addresses of at least seven (7) Arizona attorneys who practice in the field or judges before whom you have appeared, are familiar with your practice, and not including current partners or associates. You may not use as references the members of the Board of Legal Specialization or the Administrative Law Advisory Commission. A list of the members serving in these capacities can be found at:

<https://www.azbar.org/for-lawyers/career-advancement/legal-specialization/>.

In addition to the references you provide, the Administrative Law Advisory Commission will select at least seven (7) Arizona lawyers, judges, or qualified professionals as references from cases/matters/projects submitted by the applicant to demonstrate substantial involvement. All references will be requested to provide written comments on such specific topics as knowledge, skill, thoroughness, preparation, effectiveness, and judgment, but also concerning your ethics and professionalism.

The Standards for Certification require that an applicant demonstrate honesty, integrity and professionalism as defined by, the Lawyer's Creed of Professionalism of the State Bar of Arizona, and a high degree of competence in the practice of administrative law. The required degree of competence is substantially higher than that possessed by a general practitioner who regularly handles an administrative law matter. A "high degree of competence" shall mean the satisfaction of the following standards:

INITIAL CERTIFICATION ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1. That the applicant demonstrates a substantially complete knowledge of substantive law and rules of practice, procedure, evidence and ethics pertaining to administrative law;
2. That the applicant demonstrates a high degree of skill, thoroughness, preparation, effectiveness, professionalism, preparation and judgment in the field of administrative law; and
3. That the applicant satisfactorily completes a written examination in the topics specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) above. This examination shall be given at least once each calendar year at a date, time and location determined by the Administrative Law Advisory Commission. The test and its grading criteria shall be formulated at the direction of the Advisory Commission and approved by the Board of Legal Specialization; and
4. That the applicant demonstrates a substantially complete knowledge of and a high degree of skill in the use of alternative dispute resolution as it applies in the field.
5. Legal competence to be measured by the extent to which an attorney (1) is specifically knowledgeable about the fields of law in which the attorney practices, (2) performs the techniques of such practice with skill, (3) manages such practice efficiently, (4) identifies issues beyond his or her competence relevant to the matter undertaken, bringing these to the client's attention, and (5) properly prepares and carries through the matter undertaken.

E. Substantial Involvement in Administrative Law. Pursuant to the Standards for Certification of Lawyers Specializing in Administrative Law, applicants must demonstrate substantial involvement in the field of administrative law during three (3) years immediately preceding this application.

For purposes hereof, "substantial involvement in the field of administrative law" shall mean the engagement by the applicant in legal service (as defined in Section I of the Rules and Regulations of the Arizona Board of Legal Specialization) equivalent to at least 50% of practice time to matters in which issues of administrative law are significant factors. An applicant shall certify and demonstrate that they have practical experience in administrative law by serving as:

1. Lead advocate in a contested case;
2. Presiding official in a contested case in the capacity of: Arbitrator, Judge for any court of record, Administrative Law Judge, Hearing Officer, or Mediator;
3. Party responsible for rulemaking proceedings at the municipal, county, state, or federal level, including petitioning for rules, drafting rules, preparing comments or testifying on behalf of a client concerning proposed agency rules, and/or seeking judicial or legislative review of final rules.
4. Party responsible for providing legal advice to government entity;
5. Legal representative for a government entity;
6. Legal representative for private entity before a government entity or persons connected to government entity;
7. Party responsible for drafting requests for public information or responses to requests for public information;
8. Party responsible for conducting government entity investigations;
