Ethics – Do YOU Know the Changes?

Thursday 1:00 - 4:30 pm

The Bar is celebrating 30 years of CLE by the Sea (finally)! Come join the Ethics program on Thursday afternoon for an entertaining and interactive review of “recent” (the past 3 years) changes in the Rules. The panelists, along with audience members, also will address ethics changes in how we practice that apply to family law, probate, civil litigation, criminal, and even business law!

For instance: Can you give your spouse an ownership interest in your law firm? What things can an LP do in family law cases? Can you text answers to your client during a Zoom deposition? Why should you even care if the advertising rules changed when you don’t advertise? Can a lawyer be disciplined for throwing a racoon out of a boat? See if you know the answers to these and other panel questions. There might even be prizes!

Hosted by:

Lynda C. Shely and Christine Davis
